The Progressive Magazine - Event Coordination Internship

The Progressive is a monthly magazine of investigative reporting, political commentary, cultural coverage, activism, interviews, poetry, and humor. It champions peace, social and economic justice, civil rights, civil liberties, human rights, a preserved environment, and a reinvigorated democracy. Its bedrock values are non-violence and freedom of speech.

As a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, The Progressive relies on the generosity of readers and likeminded contributors.

An energetic event intern is needed to help with all organizing and logistics of Fighting Bob Fest on Saturday, September 17th.

Fighting Bob Fest is the largest gathering of progressives in the nation. Featuring famous liberal thinkers, educators, authors, and musicians, Fighting Bob Fest has brought thousands of rabble-rousers to Dane County over the past thirteen years.

Event Coordination Interns will work under the direction of the Events Manager to organize logistics of Fighting Bob Fest 2016. Interns will learn the basics of database management, event promotion via social media and email campaigns, event site planning, schedule management, volunteer management, and post-event documentation.

Applicants should be organized, outgoing, passionate about progressive values and independent media. Past event experience not necessary, although helpful.

The Progressive is dedicated to providing internships that meet the qualifications for earning academic credit. If hired, staff will help interns apply and complete requirements to earn J697 internship credit or your college’s equivalent course. Interns at The Progressive are also given a $500 semestery stipend.

To apply, please email a cover letter and resumé titled ‘last name, first name  document name’ to Lizzie Kunze, office manager, at elizabeth@progressive.org.
